

Lesson Plans Overview		Writing 2
Rationale		In this lesson, students will discuss how prayers have changed their lives, and will use the pattern of 'cause and effect' to describe how God transform the being and doing of believers in this world.
Title		Who are involved in a prayer and what are we asking from God?
Content		Petitions 1-5
Supplement		Luke 11:1-4
Objective (Top-down)		Reading to write
Objective (Bottom-Up)		Grammar
		Outlines	ESL Teacher	ESL Volunteers	ESL Students
7:00-7:10	Warm Up & Opening Prayers	Sharing thoughts from their homework	As you listen to thoughts and answers of others, please take notes next to your own answers as a	Small group share their answers - Luke 11:1-4 Worksheet	Small group share their answers - Luke 11:1-4 Worksheet
7:10-7:20	Presentation	Cause and Effect	By using their worksheet as an example to explain cause and effect	Interact with the classmates and the teacher	Interact with the classmates and the teacher
7:20-7:30	Modeling	John 6:8-10 Jesus feeding five thousand	Making sentences of either cause or effect, then give answers of the other	Interact with the classmates and the teacher	Interact with the classmates and the teacher
7:30-7:45	Controlled/Guided Practice	Small group activity	Use the 1st 5 petitions to make either cause or effect sentences	Ask questions to help students to think first rather than give your thoughts right away	If you need spelling or grammar assistance, the volunteers would love to help you out.
7:45-8:00	Break
8:00-8:10	Modeling	Writing a prayer and give a title	By using the cause and effect (Reverend Fun)	Interact with the classmates and the teacher	Interact with the classmates and the teacher
8:10-8:25	Semi-controlled/Free Practice	Small group activity	Picture from Reverend Fun	Make sure three element: title, the body of prayers, cause and effect pattern	It might be easier to write prayers first then give a title.
8:25-8:30	Feedback/Homework	Rewrite the 1st 5 petitions with your own words	Debrief what they have learned and explain the homework	As usual, ask each other how you may pray for one another for the coming week.	Once you rewrite your prayer, share with your children to see what they would like to add or modify with a different color pen.